Madison, Wisconsin -- Erik C. Peterson, United States Attorney for the Western District of Wisconsin, announced that Reginald Sowell, 28, of Madison, Wisconsin was sentenced yesterday by U.S. District Judge Barbara Crabb to 123 months in prison for selling crack cocaine. This term of imprisonment will be served without the possibility of parole. Sowell pleaded guilty to this charge on April 4, 2007.

Sowell sold crack cocaine to an undercover officer on two different occasions. The amount he sold totaled almost 50 grams.

The charges against Sowell were the result of an investigation conducted by the Dane County Narcotics and Gang Task Force. The prosecution of the case has been handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney Elizabeth Altman.
